

Turning crisis into opportunity: Learning from Leaders in Insurance

Participating in a TechPros Thought Leadership interview

TechPros.io is interviewing an exclusive group of C-Level executives from within the European insurance communities. This is part of a thought leadership programme that will have wide press coverage and will also result in a publication that will be shared widely in the industry. Previous participants from similar initiatives have found the experience intellectually stimulating and benefit from the insights shared from across their peer group.

Participation does not cost anything other than 20-30 minutes of your time. We will call you on your preferred phone number. If you want to discuss your interview with TechPros.io or our sponsor Mindtree before participating, please email interview@techpros.io with the theme you have been invited to interview for and a number to call you.

How Insurance leaders are addressing the disruption caused by Coronavirus

Beata Javorcik, chief economist at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development says "Even if we are able to fight the Coronavirus pandemic into submission, its effects are likely to spark nothing less than a rethink of how the world does business." "Coronavirus will not end globalisation, but it will change it." With the pandemic disrupting global markets, insurance organisations companies need to quickly address the changing marketplace. This industry research will explore the potential to innovate through new technologies, data, automation and customer experience. The interview is exclusively for C-level leaders interested in learning what the latest thinking is from across their peer group with the insurance sector.
